FAIRFIELD DISASTER CENTER TO CLOSE SATURDAY

SACRAMENTO, Calif. - The disaster assistance center in Fairfield will permanently close its doors at 2 p.m. Saturday (March 4), state and federal disaster recovery officials announced today.

The center at 580 Texas St., staffed by federal, state and local officials and by volunteer agencies, has provided information and answered questions for 159 Solano residents who registered for disaster assistance for damage suffered in the December-January flooding.

The Vacaville assistance center, at 630 Merchant St., will remain open until further notice. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday-Friday and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday.

Registrants can still get answers to their questions or learn about the status of their applications by choosing the Helpline option at 1-800-621-FEMA (3362) or calling (TTY) 1-800-462-7585 between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday. The deadline to register is April 4.

“Help with questions on federal and state disaster assistance is just a phone call away,” said Federal Coordinating Officer Tom Davies of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). “Operators at the FEMA toll-free number are ready to help with many of the questions that were brought to us at the assistance centers.”

“Homeowners, renters and business owners interested in federal and state disaster assistance must register with FEMA by calling the toll-free numbers or online at www.fema.gov, even if they’ve already reported their losses to city or county officials,” said State Coordinating Officer Henry Renteria, director of the Governor’s Office of Emergency Services. “We want to make sure everyone registers who may be eligible for assistance.”

The 13 counties where federal individual assistance programs are available are Contra Costa, Del Norte, El Dorado, Lake, Marin, Mendocino, Napa, Nevada, Sacramento, Shasta, Siskiyou, Solano and Sonoma.
